However, it is made clear that setting aside the impugned G.O.Ms.No.11, shall not be construed as expressing any opinion, one way or the other, by this Court, with regard to the power of the Government to take appropriate steps as may be advised. Further, as the impugned G.O.Ms.No.11 dated 20.01.2015 was challenged by the petitioners alone, and not the Chairman and Vice Chairman who are the other two members of the Bhoodan Yagna Board, the Writ Petition is allowed insofar as the petitioners are concerned ".

Bhoodan and Gramdan Act, 1965 prima facie appears to be invalid since in the present case there is no dissolution of the Board during its term, in which circumstance only Sec.9(4) is attracted and admittedly in the present case in term of the present Board had expired without it being reconstituted under the Act. Therefore, there shall be interim suspension as prayed for" and it is pending for adjudication.
